

BOONG

Boong | India | 2024 | 90 Mins | Manipuri | Fiction

Director(s)

Lakshmipriya Devi

Producer(s)

Alan McAlex, Vikesh Bhattani, Farhan Akhtar, Ritesh Sidhwani

Cinematographer

Neilabh Kaul

Editor

Irene Dhar Malik

Sound Designer

Pritam Das

Boong is a spirited young boy living in the valley of Manipur. In an attempt to bring happiness back to his mother's life, he decides to embark on a journey to find his father, who has been missing for years. Accompanied by his best friend, Boong travels across the scenic yet politically complex landscape of Manipur towards the Myanmar border. Along the way, his innocence transforms into a deeper understanding of family, identity, and the shared humanity that transcends borders.

Festivals

Toronto International Film Festival (Discovery), MAMI Mumbai Film Festival, International Film Festival of Kerala (IFFK).

Awards

Nominated for Best Debut Director at various regional and international festivals.

Sales

Excel Entertainment / MacGuffin Pictures

Lakshmipriya Devi is a filmmaker originally from Manipur, India. She has spent over a decade working in the Indian film industry as an assistant director on several high-profile projects. Boong marks her feature film directorial debut, inspired by her roots and the desire to tell authentic stories from Northeast India. Her work focuses on human emotions set against the backdrop of specific cultural and geographical nuances, aiming to give voice to the diverse narratives of Manipur.

BOONG

| Boong | India | 2024 | 90 Mins | Manipuri | Fiction

Director(s)

Lakshmipriya Devi

Producer(s)

Alan McAlex, Vikesh Bhutani,
Farhan Akhtar, Ritesh Sidhwani

Cinematographer

Neilabh Kaul

Editor

Irene Dhar Malik

Sound Designer

Pritam Das

Boong is a spirited young boy living in the valley of Manipur. In an attempt to bring happiness back to his mother's life, he decides to embark on a journey to find his father, who has been missing for years. Accompanied by his best friend, Boong travels across the scenic yet politically complex landscape of Manipur towards the Myanmar border. Along the way, his innocence transforms into a deeper understanding of family, identity, and the shared humanity that transcends borders.

Festivals

Toronto International Film Festival (Discovery), MAMI Mumbai Film Festival, International Film Festival of Kerala (IFFK).

Awards

Nominated for Best Debut Director at various regional and international festivals.

Sales

Excel Entertainment / MacGuffin Pictures

Lakshmipriya Devi is a filmmaker originally from Manipur, India. She has spent over a decade working in the Indian film industry as an assistant director on several high-profile projects. Boong marks her feature film directorial debut, inspired by her roots and the desire to tell authentic stories from Northeast India. Her work focuses on human emotions set against the backdrop of specific cultural and geographical nuances, aiming to give voice to the diverse narratives of Manipur.

BOONG

| Boong | India | 2024 | 90 Mins | Manipuri | Fiction

Director(s)

Lakshmipriya Devi

Producer(s)

Alan McAlex, Vikesh Bhutani,
Farhan Akhtar, Ritesh Sidhwani

Cinematographer

Neilabh Kaul

Editor

Irene Dhar Malik

Sound Designer

Pritam Das

Boong is a spirited young boy living in the valley of Manipur. In an attempt to bring happiness back to his mother's life, he decides to embark on a journey to find his father, who has been missing for years. Accompanied by his best friend, Boong travels across the scenic yet politically complex landscape of Manipur towards the Myanmar border. Along the way, his innocence transforms into a deeper understanding of family, identity, and the shared humanity that transcends borders.

Festivals

Toronto International Film Festival (Discovery), MAMI Mumbai Film Festival, International Film Festival of Kerala (IFFK).

Awards

Nominated for Best Debut Director at various regional and international festivals.

Sales

Excel Entertainment / MacGuffin Pictures

Lakshmipriya Devi is a filmmaker originally from Manipur, India. She has spent over a decade working in the Indian film industry as an assistant director on several high-profile projects. Boong marks her feature film directorial debut, inspired by her roots and the desire to tell authentic stories from Northeast India. Her work focuses on human emotions set against the backdrop of specific cultural and geographical nuances, aiming to give voice to the diverse narratives of Manipur.